

Flowers, Flags, Etc.:

Flowers, florals, etc. are not to be placed in alcohol or other preservatives.

No glass vases of any type are allowed.

No wire hangers for holding plants are allowed.

When flags, flowers or wreaths become wilted or unsightly, the same shall be immediately removed.

No trees, shrubs, flowers, etc. shall be planted on any grave plot except by the Town of Rural Hall.

Resale of Grave Plots:

Grave plots cannot be purchased for the purpose of resale.

Any purchaser desiring to surrender his/her rights to a grave plot, may do so by delivering his/her certificate to the Town of Rural Hall. The Town of Rural Hall will then attempt to sell the grave plot to another individual for the original price of the grave plot.

Interments:

Interments will be conducted during daylight hours only.

Interments will not be allowed on Easter Sunday nor Christmas Day.

Only interments of human remains will be permitted.

Only one interment shall be made in a single grave plot.

No more than one person shall be interred in a single grave plot.

EXCEPTIONS: Mother and infant or two children and then only when interred at the same time.

A permanent enclosure for a casket is required for all interments.

CREMATIONS: No more than two interments of cremated remains shall be allowed in one grave plot.

The Town of Rural Hall reserves the right to require that certain interments be held only in the presence of the immediate family or family member, licensed funeral director and employees of the Town of Rural Hall. Rural Hall Memorial Park will be closed at that time.

Rural Hall Memorial Park

Rural Hall Memorial Park is located on Tobaccoville Road in Rural Hall, North Carolina. The cemetery was founded in 1935 by four area churches: Kingswood United Methodist Church, Rural Hall Baptist Church, Rural Hall Church of Christ and Rural Hall Moravian Church. In 1994, the cemetery and the operations thereof were turned over to the Town of Rural Hall.

The purchase price and terms of sale for all grave plots or any services furnished by Rural Hall Memorial Park are established by the Board of Councilmen of the Town of Rural Hall.

The Town of Rural Hall will not be liable for any damages that are brought about by elements, thieves, Act of God, common enemy, vandals, strikers, malicious mischief makers, children, explosions, unavoidable accidents, invasions, riots, trespassers, etc.
